Hon. William C. Younger

Judicial Building - Capitol

Dear Bill:

I was wondering why I have not had any news or other information from the Southeastern Chapter (A.A.L.L.) -- then it dawned on me that our new Law Library has not paid its Southeastern Chapter dues. Could you send me some sort of paper indicating that the dues are $5.00 (that is right, isn't it?) so that I can run a pay order through the business office? Who is serving as treasurer in Nancy's place?

I also need to take advantage of your expertise in Alabama politics, law, and code revision. It is my understanding that Alabama is in the process of revising the state code. I hesitate to buy the current code if the new code is coming out in the very near future. Do you know when the new code is scheduled to come out? Who is publishing it?

Thank you for this and all past favors. You need to be planning another trip to Jackson so that you can see what we are doing with Law Libraries out here in Clinton. Please consider this your first official invitation to visit us.

Thanks -- as ever,

Carol C. West
